Tom Nekoliczak met with the Board regarding the condition of 811th Rd. He gave many reasons why he felt the road should be upgraded. Some of the reasons he gave were the timing to knock some of the hills down since the power company will be putting in 3-phase power lines & poles, the road could be used for a bus route and landowners would like to use the road and think it is traveled more often than other dirt roads. Kristy Barnes, Colleen Hansen, Anita Cargill and Arnold Moody also commented in favor of the road being upgraded. Goldfish and Reilly gave examples of other requests that have been denied on dirt roads that would have also benefited some individuals. The consensus of the Board was against the road upgrade.
